

Waiting for a Train

Jimmie Rodgers

1. All a - round the wat - er tank, a wait - ing for a train a put me off in Tex - as a state I dear - ly love. the thous - and miles a - way from home sleep - ing in the rain. I wide op - en spac - es all a - round me the moon and stars a - bove.

walked up to a brake - man to give him a line of talk;
 no - bod - y seems to want me or lend me a help - ing hand.

— he says "If you've got mon - ey, I'll see that you don't I'm on my way from Fris - co I'm going back to Dix - ie walk." land. I hav - en't got a nick - el; not a pen - ny can I Though my pock - et book is emp - ty, and my heart is full of show. Get off, get off, — you rail - road bum. He slammed the box - car pain, I'm a thous - and miles a - way from home just wait - ing for a door. Yo - del a - ee, ol - a - ee ol - a - ee. 1. 2. He a - ee. — train.